Worthy of Note.

We call attention to the Tax Record of the Radical Public Officers of Orangeburg, on our first page. The only one, whose name was on the Tax Book, had a Tax Execution levied against him for $1.90, which he failed to pay.

The Poll for Raye's Pump will be held at Orangeburg. We state this, because an effort has been made to have the poll opened at Rowe's, but it has been unsuccessful.

The Big Fence.

The people of our town have the "big fence" at the corner again. It is covered with artistic designs; which are quite attractive, and the crowd of urchins attest the liking of the young for Equestrian Exhibitions. "-We find by our exchanges that Ames' New Orleans Circus and Menngeric is a rare combination of artists; and that its riders are superb, its jesters superlatively jocose, and all its appliances faultless, to Itawill be here on Thursday, the 11th June next.

DRAR Still: With pleasure I have learned that a portion of your readers have nowable onportunity of availing themselves of the professional services of Dri Charles R. Taber, a talented young physician located at Lewisville, whose health for several years past, has been scriously impaired by exposure incident to field dury during the late way. It is to

The statement that Dr. T's fine matural endowments are highly improved by proper culture and assiduous application, will surprise none who know the enthusiasm of his character. Dr. Taber entered the Confederate service in 1861 as Assistant Surgeon, was afterwards prohibled to the rank of full Surgeon, was assigned to positions of unusual responsibility for one of this years, filled them with meredit, and was regarded by competent judges as among the most promising young Surgeons in the Army.

To substantiate the foregoing, let me recite la single passage of a letter from one of the Leading Surgeons of the Army. "Allow me to d introduce Surgesp Charles Taber, of Charleston. My acquaintance with Dr. Taber is fully sufficient to warrant my assertion that, for a combination of intellectual traits, he is most decidedly one of the most superior young Sur-"geons in the chire Arthy Apart from his medical skill, you will find him a thoroughly high-toned gentleman and scholar." May not a community be justly congratulated upon the acquisition of a citizen with such
